About Michael Herron

After studying for 5 years at both Meadowbank TAFE '84-'85 and City Art Institute (now UNSW College of Art and Design) '86-'88, Michael won The Sydney Morning Herald Travelling Art Scholarship in 1988 and - combined with the Dyson Bequest from the Art Gallery of NSW - painted in the Mora Dyring Studio at the Cite Internationale des Artes in Paris for 4 months and travelled for 2 and a half years in Asia, Europe and America.

There have been numerous artist trips to the Flinders Ranges, West MacDonnell Ranges, Cooma, Rylstone and the north coast of NSW.

Michael has taught and run workshops since the mid-90s and classes at numerous schools, art centres and art societies and has guest lectured at COFA and TAFE, run workshops at Cockatoo island and guided art trips for World Expeditions to the West MacDonnell and Flinders Ranges.

Michael currently resides in the Blue Mountains.

Artist's Statement

"As much as anything else, I'm a collector.

*When I see or notice something in particular,
it must have formed some significance for me.*

I like that in painting all this noticing and significance can be brought together; forming new balances, tensions and perspectives - a way of equating things.

*I see painting as pinning down ideas as they blur past;
pinning down the current thinking and bringing those ideas to life."*
